MORNING PRAYER OFFERING

Merciful God, / thank you for your love, / grace, blessings, presence and spirit.

Give me the grace, willingly to say YES / to everything / that I am expected / to do today.

Give me the strength, / to say NO / when I am tempted / or persuaded / to do anything / that is wrong today.

Give me the patience, / to accept / the right things, / that is to be done / today.

Give me the readiness, / to obey all instructions / which come to me / from my teachers today.

Give me the humbleness, / to respect my friends / today.

Give me the wisdom, / to learn all subjects / being taught today.

And bless me / to live in purity / and in self discipline / and in the memory / that you are always with me / today.

This prayer I offer you.

SARVODAYA CENTRAL VIDYALAYA

1. About

The school is owned and managed by the Major Archdiocese of Trivandrum; one of its primary apostolates is its service in the field of education. For the last 89 years, the Major Archdiocese has been rendering excellent services to the society by providing quality education to thousands of students across the nation. Its goal in its educational undertakings has always been something more than the ordinary and the mediocre. It is an undeniable fact that the Major Archdiocese of Trivandrum has tried to reach out to all sections of the society, through its educational institutions, in providing value-based education for higher order thinking skills like critical and analytical thinking, evaluation and application.

Sarvodaya Central Vidyalaya (CBSE), a sister institution of Sarvodaya Vidyalaya (ICSE), was established on June 3, 2002, by the Late Major Archbishop His Beatitude Moran Mor Cyril Baselios Catholicos. On April 1, 2003, the school got affiliated to the Central Board of Secondary Education (CBSE Affiliation No. 930467). Sarvodaya Central Vidyalaya was blessed with a separate building on May 31, 2006. On January 22, 2007, our school was sanctioned to start Science and Humanities stream for Grade XI (AISSCE). We have classes from KG to XII.

2. Patron

His Beatitude Moran Mor Baselios Cardinal Cleemis Catholicos, the Major Archbishop of Trivandrum is the patron of the school. The school functions under the Malankara Catholic Educational Society, which is a registered Society for the unaided CBSE Schools in the Major Archdiocese of Trivandrum. The syllabus followed in the school is that of NCERT supervised and guided by the Central Board of Secondary Education which is widely adopted all over the country and abroad.

3. Motto

The school adheres to the motto 'Let there be light'

4. Objectives

The school, with its finest faculties, strives to ensure that they offer high quality, academically sound education by providing a variety of stimulating learning experiences. It also promotes an environment based on fundamental human values helping to foster a wholesome personality on intellectual, physical, moral and spiritual growth in making the students self-disciplined, self-reliant, independent thinkers, skilful communicators and ideal global citizens.

16. Promotions

- Missing out on tests and activity based evaluations directly affect the promotion of the students to the next class at the end of the academic year.
- To qualify for a subject, student must obtain a minimum of grade 'D'.
- Results will be published on the school notice board on specified dates mentioned at the time. Intimation by other means is not entertained.
- Results will be withheld in cases of fee defaulters and any other dues owing to the departments concerned.
- Overall performance of the candidate is based on the achievement in Scholastic as well as Co-scholastic areas and Co-curricular Activities. The active involvement/interest in co-scholastic activities, positive attitude towards mentors and school programmes help the child to upgrade his/her co-scholastic grades.
- 90% attendance is must for promotion to next class.
- Results declared at the end of the sessions are final in all cases unless otherwise permitted.
- Re-tests/exams are not permitted unless there is special permission from the Principal.

17. Attendance & Leave Procedure

Coming to school regularly is an integral part of a student's life.

- Every student must without fail, attend classes on the re-opening day after each short or long break. Attendance is compulsory on the first day (re-opening day) of the academic year.
- No student will be allowed to attend class, next day, without a leave letter duly signed by the parent. The same must be noted in the 'Record of Absence' page in the diary.
- If a student is absent for 3 consecutive days, a medical certificate by a doctor must be provided.
- In case a student absents himself/herself from school for more than 15 days, prior permission must be taken from Principal /Class Mentor. Failure to do so will call for removal of student's name from the roll.
- A student who is found to be habitually absent without any bonafide reason or any explanation from parents or guardians is liable to have, his/her name struck off from the roll and information will be passed on to parents/guardian.

- Half-day leave is not allowed unless otherwise permitted.
- Students are not allowed to leave the school without prior permission. They can leave by means of a gate pass approved by the Principal or Section Mentor.

18. Tardiness

- All students are expected to be in school 5 minutes before the last warning bell that goes off in the morning at 08.25.
- Those coming by private vehicles are expected to be on time.
- Any student arriving to school after 08.25 a.m. must obtain a permission slip from the Principal's office, to enter the classroom.
- A marking will be made in the late comer's column in the diary, for those who arrive late to school.
- Three consecutive late coming will be seriously dealt with and parents will be called to the office to meet the Principal.
- In case the school bus is delayed due to some reason the student will not be marked late.
- In the case of a student not being at the boarding point on time and making the school bus wait, that particular student will be marked late in his/her diary.

19. Study Tours / Picnics

- School will arrange timely tours/picnics to provide students with an opportunity to visit places of historical, educational or ecological significance. The amount to cover the expenses arising will be collected from the student at the time.

20. Facilities

(i) Library

The school has a well-equipped state-of-the-art library with books ranging from reference materials, educational journals to children's story books. The students are advised to use the library resources.

- Students must carry their library cards on the days they have library hour on their timetable in order to get a book issued.

- Only one book at a time will be issued to the student for a period of one week. In case the student wants to extend the period they should take the book and their library card to the librarian who will then renew it for another week. However, the librarian can exercise the right to call for a book, at any time, from the borrower.
- Books must be properly examined before leaving the librarian's desk and in case of any damage at the time of issuance must be reported immediately. Books borrowed from the library should be kept neat at all times and no markings, underlining or scribbling of any kind is permitted.
- The student in whose name the library book is issued will be held solely responsible for any damages found on return.
- A fine of Rs. 5/- will be charged per day if the book is not returned by due date. If books are lost, damaged or defaced, a fine amounting to double the cost of book will be charged. In case of any dispute the Principal's decision shall be final and binding.
- In case the student loses his library card, a duplicate card will be issued at a cost of Rs. 25/-.
- Students reading in the library must maintain silence at all times.
- Students must leave their footwear outside the library before entering the place. Internet facility is available in the library and can be used with prior approval from the Principal and under the supervision of the mentor concerned.

ii. Transportation

School buses are plying to different destinations.

- Parents of students availing school transportation must contact the transportation department/administrative office to get information about the available routes, boarding points, bus number and applicable bus fee. Students can avail the school bus facility only after remitting the bus fee and obtaining Journey ID Card from the office. They must also ensure that they carry it on all school days.
- Parents/Guardians must ensure that their children board the bus safely and is collected on return.
- Parents of those students coming by private vans must submit a written letter with details about the driver, a copy of any ID card of the person concerned and that of the van.

- In case there is a change in the person who is collecting the student or change of van, the details must be informed at the administration desk and discussed with the class mentor. This ensures safety of our students.

iii. Audio Visual Room

- There are two well-equipped audio visual rooms in the school which the students are allowed to use only under the supervision of their respective mentors.

iv. Atal Tinkering Laboratories

- xv. The students are provided with a playground where they can play or run around during their assigned PT hours or breaks.
- xvi. Please refrain from any such act like pushing, kicking, tugging or even using some object that can inflict pain on others.
- xvii. While walking in the corridors to move for the assembly, to other classrooms, to the audio-visual room or any other place in the campus designated, students must ensure they walk in a line at all times.

- xviii. Do not shout or make any other disturbing noises like whistling or so when moving around in the campus.
- xix. Students are expected to be soft spoken at all times. You are not to raise your voice towards your teachers or peers or the support staff.
- xx. No valuable articles must be brought to school and in case any such items are brought and lost the school takes no responsibilities.
- xxi. Mobile phones, cameras, other digital gadgets, pen drives, CDs or so are not allowed in the school, even during any special occasions or celebrations. If anyone is found in possession of unwanted items those will be immediately confiscated, which will be released after 6 months upon producing an apology letter duly signed by the parents/guardian. Parent/Guardian must ensure that they come in person to collect the confiscated item. Repetition of the same will result in strict disciplinary action.
- xxii. If any awkward situation, event or behaviour is noticed a student must ensure that it is reported to their class mentor without fail.
- xxiii. If any fellow student is ill or meets with an accident in the campus the same must be reported immediately to the class mentor.
- xxiv. Students are not allowed to leave the school during school hours and are prohibited from having contact with strangers.
- xxv. Students travelling by school buses must queue up in the aisle and walk towards the gate strictly maintaining the line. Patience must be maintained without rushing at all times.
- xxvi. All students are expected to obey all the instructions provided from time to time by their mentors, class leaders, school leaders and prefects.
- xxvii. Wearing gold ornaments is strictly prohibited inside the school campus.
- xxviii. The medium of communication inside the school campus is English.
- xxix. Students should wish the mentors, as soon as they come across them.

22. SCHOOL LEADERS / PREFECTS

- i. A team of school leaders and prefects are carefully chosen at the beginning of the academic year. Badges will be provided to recognize them.

- ii. They will be in charge of general discipline and cleanliness of the campus.
- iii. They will be functioning along with the school authorities to ensure harmony amongst students and the school.
- iv. Any sort of unacceptable behaviour from the leaders or prefects that can tarnish the goodwill of the school will call for removal of the badge without further explanations.
- v. All students are expected to obey the assigned leaders and prefects at all times.

23. SCHOOL SPORTS DAY

- i. Students are divided into different houses and the decision of the PT instructors on these remains final.
- ii. Respective T-Shirts representing the house colours will be provided from the school after taking appropriate measurements. These will be distributed by the class mentors on receipt of the charges intimated at the time.
- iii. Each student must buy the Sports uniform from the school.

24. KIDS' DAY

The Kids' Day celebrations are conducted in the month of November. Students from LKG to grade IV participate in the same.

25. SCHOOL ANNUAL DAY

- iii. Dr. K. T. Cherian Panicker Endowment Prize: Instituted by Dr. K. T. Cherian Panicker, former Principal of the School, to be awarded to a student who scores the highest mark in Humanities Stream in the AISSCE Examination and also to the topper in the AISSE Examination.

28. VISITORS

- i. Visitors to the school are not allowed direct access to classrooms.
- ii. They have to come to the Reception and take prior permission to meet the principal.
- iii. In order to meet the class mentor or any other subject teacher prior permission must be taken over the phone or in writing from the principal.

29. NOTE TO PARENTS / GUARDIAN

Parents and mentors together play a great role in shaping a child into a responsible, courteous, respectable individual. Hence, parents are requested to cooperate with the mentors in all matters related to school life of their child.

- i. The school Diary is the primary source of communication at all times between the parents and the mentors.
- ii. Kindly go through the diary on a daily basis.

- iii. Please ensure that the class mentor is always informed if your child is not able to attend classes due to some reason.
- iv. Please make sure that the Leave Record is appropriately filled in when your child is resuming school immediately after the break.
- v. Please make sure that you send your child to school in complete and proper uniform.
- vi. It is the duty of the parent to ensure that your child attends school in a presentable manner i.e. ironed and clean uniform, combed hair, polished shoes etc.
- vii. Please make sure that you communicate with your child and ask about their day at school to ensure everything is well.
- viii. Please do not rebuke or abuse your child if they do not meet your expectations both academically and co-scholastically.
- ix. Please remember to encourage your child, persistently but politely, as our constant love and encouragement develop a child in a positive manner.
- x. Please do a self analysis to ensure that you do not lag in taking care of your child's progress.
- xi. Please ensure that you do not criticize or belittle your child's mentor in front of him/her.
- xii. If your child complains of anything that happened at school, please remain calm and try to contact the class mentor who will help you out at all times. Children are very imaginative and it is possible they might see everything to extremes and exaggerate what they say, out of fear or for attention. If the issue seems to prevail you may approach the Principal.
- xiii. Genuine suggestions or complaints are accepted with the best of intentions.
- xiv. Parents whose children are in the lower classes, are requested to label their child's belongings accordingly. Remember they are very small children and it is possible that they can misplace or lose their belongings. However, you may never scold them, instead enquire with the school. Any lost and found item will be kept in safe custody for a period of two weeks till the owner claims it.
- xv. Parents must ensure that their child/children carry sufficient water in a water bottle, snacks or breakfast as required and lunch.

- xvi. Parents must ensure that they send their child to school well equipped with sufficient stationery, handkerchief, napkins, etc. after discussing with the class mentor.
- xvii. School does not encourage private tuitions.

30. GOOD MANNERS

Every pupil, both in the School and the Boarding, is expected to behave in a refined and gracious manner. However watchful we are, roughness and lack of politeness unconsciously enter our behaviour and manners causing annoyance to others. The following guidelines will be very useful for your todays and tomorrows.

i. AT HOME

Your home is a place of love. Express your love and gratitude towards your parents for all that they do for you. Be polite and pleasing to all members of your family. When you leave home, let your parents know where you go and when you'll return. Use the terms "Please", "I am sorry", "Thank you", "Excuse me", etc. as required. Keep your mind free from jealousy or envy. Avoid quarrelling. When you enter your house make sure that your foot wear and feet are clean. Open the door gently to get in. Arrange all your belongings in your house in an orderly way. Keep your table clean; dust your room as often as necessary. When you listen to the Radio or watch T.V. see that others are not disturbed. Deposit all waste things in a basket which must be placed in a corner. Keep an atmosphere of affection, concern, cheerfulness and selflessness in the place you live.

"How sweet, sweet home, There is no place Like a happy home" (John Milton)

ii. AT SCHOOL

School is your second home though it is a place where you receive instructions. Be punctual for class and be orderly in all your movements. Follow your conscience in everything. Accept that "Right is right and wrong is wrong". Be sincere and frank with your mentors. Love them and greet them affectionately. Be proud of your School.

In the class: Sit at the place assigned to you. Don't cause discomfort to your neighbour. Respect and obey your class leader. Don't write anything on the desk or walls. Don't scatter your books on the desk.

Take out your books from the bags as required. Attend all classes without fail.

When you go to the office of Fr. Manager, Fr. Principal, Warden or any mentor, knock at the door gently. When he says, “Come in” enter the room and greet him/her. Don’t sit unless you are told to sit. Then say “Thank you” and talk clearly and distinctly. If you do not hear properly what is spoken to you, say ‘I beg your pardon, Father/Sir’. Don’t say “What?”. Listen carefully and answer to the question, When leaving the room, say respectfully “Thank You, Father/Sir”.

When you are in their rooms, don’t touch anything on the table or show curiosity or stare at things. Never read any letters on the table, Don’t argue with others. Put forward your request politely. Abide by their decisions. If you have to wait at others doors, never peep, or stay too close within hearing range or cough to indicate your presence.

iii. STUDY

Pay attention to study. Schedule the time, find out important ideas, ask yourself questions and write the answers down. Recall and test your memory. Study calmly and silently.

iv. CLEANLINESS

Cleanliness is next to Godliness. Keep your body clean always. Change your clothes regularly. Keep a handkerchief always with you. Keep your mouth habitually closed; Breathe out through your nose and not through the mouth. Keep the bath rooms and toilets clean after use. Rinse the bucket and empty it after use. Avoid coughing and sniffing loudly while in company. Spitting, cracking fingers, poking fingers into your ears, nose, teeth or hair in public are ugly habits, always use your right hand for giving and taking.

v. BEDROOM

Bedroom is a place of rest. Avoid all kinds of noise. Keep your bed always clean and tidy. Change sheets and pillow covers regularly. Don’t keep anything unclean in the bedroom. Use lights and fans according to your needs.

vi. DRESS

Dress neatly and modestly. It must suit your body and purse. The colours you choose must match your body. Don’t blindly follow fashions. Act on your convictions.

vii. TABLE MANNERS

Appear at the dining table in a neat and presentable manner. Handle the chair, plates, cups and glasses with care. Don't drag them. Take a little food at a time or else you may waste it. Set apart a small area in the plate for depositing waste. It should not be thrown around the plate or on the floor. If you want to talk during meals, cover your mouth with the left hand. Don't lean on the table. When you eat, keep a napkin across your lap which may be useful for wiping lips. "Eat to live and do not live to eat." "Avoid giving the impression of being greedy. If the food is hot, do not blow on it. Don't gulp your food. Don't be hasty in eating. Don't look enviously into other's plates. If you find an insect or hair in the food, don't make a fuss about it or don't call the attention of others. Don't be selective when a dish is passed on to you. Take what is required and pass it on to your neighbour. If you want anything, ask for it, saying "please". Don't pick your teeth while at the table. Do it outside. Pay compliments if you have enjoyed the meal.

viii. CONVERSATION

Speak in a delightful manner, greet your companions joyously. Let a word of praise, appreciation, or congratulation be always found in your talk. Avoid scandalous talk and vulgar words. Use wit and humour often. Treat everyone with respect and honour. Be sincere and frank with your companions. Think twice before you talk. Accept all your mistakes and faults graciously. Try to make others happy and cheerful.

ix. USING THE PHONE

When you are contacting a person over the phone, put all your kindness, refinement and interest in your voice. Speak clearly, distinctly and pleasantly in a subdued voice. When someone at the other end takes the phone, say who you are and ask for the person you want. Try to be short. At the end of the conversation, express gratitude and thanks.

x. ON THE ROAD

When you are in the street, keep the rules of the road. Be decent and gentle in walking. Avoid staring and pointing at others. Avoid noisy talk. Just salute your acquaintances and elders. While crossing a road, look at the signals. Always walk by the right-hand side of the road. Use the foot path. Take care of yourself. When you have to follow queue system, wait patiently for your turn. Skipping others and taking unjust advantage is an uncultured habit.

xi. IMPORTANT SIGNALS AND TRAFFIC RULES

Red Light - Indicates you should stop

Yellow Light - Indicates you should wait for green signal

Green Light - Indicates you should start moving

Hand signals: At times, hand signals are very necessary. They should be shown clearly outside the vehicle in order to make them visible for others. When slowing down the vehicle, we should extend our arm and swing it up and down; when stopping, we should raise our forearm vertically; when turning right, we should extend our arm straight out, palm to the front; when turning left, we should extend our arm and rotate it in an anticlockwise direction.

Traffic Rules: Some general rules of the road are to

- (a) Keep left.
- (b) Give way to vehicles passing on the right side.
- (c) Give signals whenever turning right or left.
- (d) Do not cross the yellow line dividing the road.
- (e) Do not cross the stop line.
- (f) Maintain adequate distance from the vehicle ahead of you.
- (g) Carry only one pillion rider if driving two wheelers.
- (h) Take extra precautions while overtaking to ensure safety.
- (i) Follow the red, yellow and green signals at the crossing.
- (j) Use helmet if driving a two wheeler and a safety belt if driving a four wheeler.

xii. PLACES OF WORSHIP

Respect the Church as it is the house of God. On entering the Church make a profound bow with deliberate attention and reverence. Then go to the place assigned to you. When you stand or sit, do it perfectly. Observe perfect silence in the Church which helps you for deep and personal prayer. While saying prayers do it clearly and distinctly. Your heart must follow the words.

xiii. GAMES AND SPORTS

Games and sports help not only in maintaining good health but also the formation of your character. Learn the sporting spirit. Drive out selfishness and keep your temper under control. Be punctual and submit to the umpire. Be positive and constructive in everything. That will help you to become good. It is priceless to be good in human relations.
